Understanding Frontier's Refund Policy

Frontier Airlines is a low-cost carrier that offers competitive fares by unbundling many services, including refunds. Generally, Frontier does not provide automatic refunds for canceled tickets unless the flight was canceled by the airline or meets specific regulatory requirements.

📞 If you want to check your refund eligibility or start a refund request, call Frontier's dedicated support line at +1-877-622-0707.

When Does Frontier Give Refunds?

1. Flight Cancellations by Frontier

If Frontier cancels your flight, you are typically entitled to a full refund. This includes the base fare and any optional services you purchased, such as baggage or seat upgrades. Refunds in this case are generally issued automatically if you don't accept an alternative flight. If you prefer a refund over rebooking, call Frontier at 📞 +1-877-622-0707 to expedite the process.

2. Significant Schedule Changes

If Frontier changes your flight schedule significantly, such as a major time change or rerouting, you may be eligible for a refund if the new schedule does not work for you. Contact Frontier customer service at 📞 +1-877-622-0707 to discuss your options.

3. Within 24 Hours of Booking

Frontier honors the 24-hour refund rule mandated by the U.S. Department of Transportation. If you booked your flight at least 7 days before departure and cancel within 24 hours of booking, you are eligible for a full refund—even on non-refundable tickets. Call Frontier promptly at 📞 +1-877-622-0707 to initiate this.

When Refunds Are Typically Not Granted

1. No Refunds for Non-Refundable Tickets After 24 Hours

Most Frontier fares are non-refundable, which means if you decide to cancel your trip after 24 hours, you will generally not receive a refund. Instead, Frontier may provide a credit or voucher for future travel, minus cancellation fees.

📞 For details on credit policies or to request a voucher, contact Frontier at +1-877-622-0707.

2. No Refunds for No-Shows

If you fail to show up for your flight without notifying Frontier, your ticket will be canceled, and you won't receive a refund. It's essential to contact Frontier at ☎ +1-877-622-0707 if you anticipate missing a flight to explore options for rebooking or credits.
