When Does Frontier Refund Tickets?

1. Flight Cancellations by Frontier

If Frontier cancels your flight for any reason, you are generally entitled to a full refund of your ticket price. Frontier usually processes these refunds automatically, but if you want to check your refund status or request one, call them at 📞 +1-877-622-0707.

2. Cancellations Within 24 Hours of Booking

Under U.S. Department of Transportation regulations, airlines, including Frontier, must offer a full refund if you cancel your ticket within 24 hours of booking, provided your flight is more than seven days away. This rule applies regardless of whether your ticket is refundable or non-refundable. To request a refund under this rule, contact Frontier as soon as possible at 📞 +1-877-622-0707.

3. Significant Schedule Changes

If Frontier significantly changes your flight schedule, such as departure times changing by several hours or rerouting, you may qualify for a refund. If you don't want to accept the new itinerary, call Frontier at 📞 +1-877-622-0707 to request a refund.

When Refunds Are Not Available

1. Non-Refundable Tickets

Most Frontier tickets are sold as non-refundable. If you cancel after the 24-hour window or miss your flight without notification, you typically won't receive a refund. Instead, Frontier may offer travel credit for future bookings minus cancellation fees.
