

How to Change Misspelled Name on Frontier Airline Ticket: A Complete Guide

Booking an airline ticket is exciting, especially when planning a vacation or important business trip. However, one simple error—like a misspelled name—can cause stress and even travel disruptions. If you've booked a flight with Frontier Airlines and later noticed a spelling error in your name, don't panic. Frontier Airlines has policies in place to help passengers correct name errors efficiently. In this detailed guide, we'll walk you through how to change a misspelled name on a Frontier Airlines ticket, what it might cost, how to avoid penalties, and how to get expert help by calling 📞 [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+1-877-622-0707).

Why Name Accuracy Matters

Airlines are extremely strict about the name on a ticket matching the name on your government-issued ID. If the names don't match exactly, you may be denied boarding. This is why it's crucial to correct any errors on your Frontier Airlines ticket as soon as you spot them. Whether it's a minor typo or an incorrect full name, it must be fixed before travel. For immediate support, call Frontier's customer care at 📞 [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+1-877-622-0707).

Frontier Airlines Name Correction Policy

Frontier Airlines does allow name corrections under certain conditions. They understand that typos happen, especially when booking online. However, they make a clear distinction between:

- Minor Corrections (misspelled first or last name, wrong initials)
- Major Corrections (completely different person, full name changes)

To know if your case qualifies as a correction or a name change, contact Frontier representatives at 📞 [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+1-877-622-0707). Their team will review the ticket and guide you through the process.

What Qualifies as a Name Correction?

Here are some common examples of corrections that Frontier typically allows:

- Typo in spelling (e.g., Jonh instead of John)
- Missing or extra letter (e.g., Micheal instead of Michael)
- Incorrect middle name or initial
- Marriage or legal name changes with proper documentation

For any of these issues, it's best to call 📞 [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+1-877-622-0707) for assistance. Their representatives can verify your situation and help update your reservation quickly.

How to Request a Name Change or Correction

Frontier gives customers two main ways to fix a misspelled name on their ticket:

1. Call Frontier Airlines Support 📞 [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+1-877-622-0707)

This is the fastest and most recommended way to correct a name. The support team is available 24/7 to assist with name changes, flight adjustments, or travel issues. When calling 📞 [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+1-877-622-0707), make sure to have the following:

- Your booking confirmation number
- The exact spelling as it appears on your ID
- The incorrect name shown on the ticket
- Any supporting documentation (e.g., legal name change proof)

2. Via Frontier Airlines Website

Some simple corrections may be possible online. Log into your Frontier Miles account or use your booking reference to access your reservation. If the name field is editable, make the correction and save. If not, you'll need to call 📞 [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+18776220707).

Fees for Name Changes on Frontier Airlines

Frontier charges a name change fee, but this varies depending on when and how the correction is made. Minor errors may be corrected for free within 24 hours of booking. After that period, fees can range from $75 to $150 depending on the nature of the change.

For a precise quote and options based on your ticket type, call 📞 [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+18776220707). Their agents can explain the best way to make changes without paying more than necessary.

How Long Does a Name Change Take?

In most cases, a name correction can be processed instantly over the phone via 📞 [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+18776220707). If documentation is needed (like a marriage certificate or ID copy), processing may take 1–2 business days. It's always wise to act quickly to avoid last-minute issues at the airport.

Can You Change a Name at the Airport?

It is not recommended to wait until you're at the airport to request a name correction. While Frontier staff may try to help, it's far riskier and might result in denial of boarding. Instead, make any changes well in advance by calling 📞 [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+18776220707).

Can You Transfer a Ticket to Someone Else?

No. Frontier Airlines does not allow ticket transfers. This means if the name on the ticket is completely different from the intended traveler (not just a typo), the airline considers this a new booking, not a correction. The original ticket will need to be canceled, possibly incurring fees, and a new ticket must be purchased.

To avoid unnecessary cancellation costs, discuss your options with Frontier at 📞 [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+18776220707) before making any changes.

Tips to Avoid Name Errors in Future Bookings

- Always double-check the spelling of your name before confirming the ticket.
- Use the same name format as your passport or driver's license.
- If someone else is booking for you, verify your details with them.
- Book via phone for extra care by calling 📞 [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+18776220707).

What If I Booked Through a Travel Agent?

If you didn't book directly with Frontier but through a travel agency or third-party site, you may need to contact them first to make the name correction. However, the final authority for name corrections lies with Frontier, so it's still advisable to call ☎️ [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+1-877-622-0707) after talking to the agent.

Can I Change the Name After Check-in?

No. Once you've checked in for your flight, the name cannot be changed. It's vital to fix any name issues before check-in opens, which is typically 24 hours before departure. If you've already checked in and noticed an error, immediately call ☎️ [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+1-877-622-0707) for urgent assistance.

Frontier Airlines Name Correction vs. Refund Option

If your name error is too significant to correct, or if Frontier denies the change, your only option may be to cancel and rebook. Check if your ticket is refundable or offers any credit toward future travel. To explore this, call Frontier support at ☎️ [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+1-877-622-0707). They can help you assess whether it's cheaper to modify the ticket or start over.

Common Mistakes Customers Make

Here are frequent errors travelers make with names on tickets:

- Using nicknames (e.g., Mike instead of Michael)
- Swapping first and last name
- Misspelling a middle name
- Leaving out suffixes (Jr., Sr.)
- Booking under a maiden name after a legal name change

If you've made any of these mistakes, don't delay—contact Frontier right away at ☎️ [\[\[+1-877-622-0707\]\]](tel:+1-877-622-0707) to correct it.
